HONTEL and the New German Military Intelligence Service

Bernon H. MAST, HONTEL's Chief of Staff,..... said he would have left the "Gehlen Service" in April 1968; at one time he offered his cooperation, hoping that the Gehlen Service was a purely German matter, however, in the course of a year he convinced himself that this agency represents also American interests....

At that time, 6 March, MAST told the reporter that he was dismissed from his job a few days ago. He had been working for a certain Schneider/Salzburg "Gehlen Service", under the agent He 8008. Mast said, that the main reason for his dismissal is his working with "Willi" (HONTEL). Actually it is up to Col Meins and his men to show how much authority they have in order not to drop Mast and his agents network, which also has been dismissed by the "Gehlen Service" and help further before all financially..... "Willi" is paying MAST 1,000 Schillings a month until further notice.....
